

Miners' Memorial

'Erected by the Waihi Community in memory of our miners whose lives sustained our families and helped build a place we call home.'

*Dedicated by the Hon. Simon Bridges
Minister of Energy and Resources
19 October 2013*

Congratulations to Nick Brumder, a parishioner and wrought iron artist in Waihi, who had his first New Zealand major public artwork installed — the Miners' Reflective Bench.

On Saturday, 19 October 2013, many local dignitaries, townspeople, representatives from the Mines and parishioners gathered at Gilmour Lake for the dedication and unveiling of this fantastic work of art.

After the unveiling the members of the Passionist Family Groups provided lunch for those who attended.

Go and have a look at it. You'll be impressed.

Nick also designed and forged the Celtic Cross that adorns Saint Patrick's Church, Whangamata.

Well done Nick and congratulations!!
